2011 NEWS & NOTES

WILSON TO LEAD HOOSIERS

Indiana University Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Fred Glass introduced Kevin Wilson as the new head football coach at Indiana University on Dec. 7, 2010. Glass and Wilson agreed to terms on a seven-year deal that will pay Wilson $1.2 million per year.

"I am thrilled that Kevin Wilson will lead our football program," Glass said. "He is committed to compliance, academics, character and winning. He has helped lead successful programs at Miami (Ohio), Northwestern and Oklahoma. I believe his leadership, vision, confidence, teaching, commitment, discipline and toughness herald a terrific new era for Indiana football."

"I'm extremely pleased that Kevin Wilson, who has been one of the nation's top assistant coaches for several years, has agreed to come to IU to lead our football program," Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie said. "He has proven to be a great innovator, motivator and teacher, while coaching some of the most prolific offenses in NCAA history and numerous All-American athletes. He clearly has the talent and experience we were hoping to obtain as we embark on what we fully anticipate to be an exciting new era of IU football. I look forward to welcoming him to IU."

One of the most innovative and prolific offensive minds in the country, Wilson spent the 2002-10 seasons at the University of Oklahoma. He served as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 2002-05 and as offensive coordinator and tight ends and fullbacks coach from 2006-10.

Wilson led some of the most productive offenses in the history of college football to 10 consecutive bowl games, seven of which were BCS appearances, including three national championship games (2003, 2004 and 2008). OU played in seven Big 12 Title games in Wilson's nine years, going 6-1 in those appearances. His offenses were vital to accumulating an overall record of 99-24 (.805) during his time in Norman, including seven 10-win seasons.

Kevin Wilson enjoyed great success at the University of Oklahoma from 2002-10.

Indiana kicks off the season vs. Ball State at Lucas Oil Stadium, home of the Indianapolis Colts and the Big Ten Football Championship Game, on Saturday, Sept. 3.

HOOSIER COACHING STAFF

Kevin Wilson has assembled an experienced and dynamic coaching staff. Including Wilson, the staff has 135 combined years of college coaching experience, an average of 13.5 years per coach. In total, the group has coached in 55 bowl games, including 17 BCS bowl contests and seven national championship games with two national titles. Below is a look at Wilson's 2011 coaching staff:

Doug Mallory - Assistant Head Coach/Co-Defensive Coordinator/S
Mike Ekeler - Co-Defensive Coordinator/LB
Kevin Johns - Co-Offensive Coordinator/WR
Rod Smith - Co-Offensive Coordinator/QB
Brett Diersen - DE/Recruiting Coordinator
Greg Frey - OL
Mark Hagen - DT/Special Teams Coordinator
Deland McCullough - RB
Brandon Shelby - CB

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

Indiana increased its strength and conditioning staff from three to five in the offseason and named Mark Hill as its new head football strength and conditioning coach. Hill and the entire football program enjoy a 25,000-square-foot weight room, one of the nation's largest.

Hill owns 11 years of coaching experience and has been a part of six bowl teams, including the 2000 national champion Oklahoma Sooners. Hill arrived in Bloomington after four years as the head strength and conditioning director at the University of Minnesota (2007-10).

Will Peoples and Aurmon Satchell joined Rick Danison and Josh Eidson as assistant coaches in the offseason to round out the staff.

Additionally, Amy Freel joined the department as director of performance nutrition. Freel is responsible for developing a comprehensive nutrition program geared toward improving the training, performance and recovery of IU's student-athletes.

SI ON WILSON HIRE

Sports Illustrated's Stewart Mandel graded the Football Bowl Subdivision schools that changed head coaches since the end of the 2010 regular season. Indiana's hiring of Kevin Wilson received one of two "A" grades.

Below is what Mandel had to say about Wilson and the Hoosiers:

He brings the experience of having spent the past nine years working for a perennial BCS contender. He has Big Ten and Midwest familiarity from his time at Northwestern and Miami (Ohio). And he's an acclaimed offensive coordinator who will maximize Indiana's underrated skill talent.

IU-BSU IN LUCAS OIL

Indiana's 2011 football season opener against Ball State on Saturday, Sept. 3, will kick at 7 p.m. at Lucas Oil Stadium, the home of the National Football League's Indianapolis Colts. The game was originally scheduled to be played as a Ball State home game.

Known best as the home of the Colts, Lucas Oil Stadium will host the inaugural Big Ten Football Championship Game to be played on Dec. 3, 2011.

Lucas Oil Stadium is a major site for conventions, exhibitions, trade shows and NCAA basketball competition. The unique retractable roof makes it exceptionally flexible for both indoor and outdoor events. The roof can be opened or closed in approximately nine minutes. Lucas Oil Stadium is a seven-level facility that seats 63,000 for football and up to 70,000 for basketball, conventions and concerts. It covers 1.8 million square feet, features 137 corporate suites, two club lounges, meeting rooms and two exhibit halls.

THE REST OF THE WAY

Head coach Kevin Wilson and the Hoosiers kick off their home slate against Virginia at 7 p.m. ET on Sept. 10. Indiana wraps up its non-conference portion of the schedule with a Sept. 17 home meeting against South Carolina State at 3:30 p.m. and a visit to Denton, Texas, to face North Texas on Sept. 24 at 7 p.m. The Virginia and South Carolina State games will air on the Big Ten Network, while ESPN3 will carry the North Texas contest.

In Big Ten play, the Hoosiers will host Penn State (Oct. 1), Illinois (Oct. 8), Northwestern for Homecoming (Oct. 29) and Purdue (Nov. 26); and will travel to Wisconsin (Oct. 15), Iowa (Oct. 22), Ohio State (Nov. 5) and Michigan State (Nov. 19). The Northwestern, Wisconsin and Iowa games will start at noon.

BELCHER BACK IN 2011

Wide receiver Damarlo Belcher announced on Jan. 10 that he would not declare for early entry to the 2011 National Football League Draft and returned to the IU football program for his senior season.

Belcher led the Hoosiers with 78 receptions and 832 yards in 2010. His 78 catches rank second on IU's single-season list, one behind James Hardy's top mark of 79 set back in 2007, and his 832 yards put him ninth on the single-season chart. Belcher led the Big Ten in receptions and topped the league in catches per game (6.50). He also ranked fourth in the conference with 69.3 receiving yards per game and added four touchdowns.

The Fort Wayne, Ind., native became the 15th Hoosier to ever reach 100 career receptions and 1,000 career yards last season. He currently sits third on Indiana's career list with 164 catches and sixth with 1,939 yards. Hardy is IU's all-time leader in both categories with 191 receptions and 2,740 yards.

BIG TEN DIVISIONS

This season marks the Big Ten's first season with football divisions and the inaugural Big Ten Football Championship Game. The conference announced that its two six-team divisions will be known as "Legends" and "Leaders." Indiana is a member of the "Leaders" division. A breakdown of the divisions is listed below:

LEGENDS: Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern

LEADERS: Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue, Wisconsin

Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis was chosen as the site for the inaugural Big Ten Football Championship Game, which will be played in prime time on Saturday, Dec. 3. The facility will also host the title game in 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015.

BREWER, DOSS DRAFTED

Offensive lineman James Brewer and wide receiver Tandon Doss were selected in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft on April 30. The New York Giants took Brewer with the 117th overall selection and the Baltimore Ravens picked Doss with the 123rd choice.

Doss became the second Hoosier ever selected by the Ravens, and Brewer was the 10th taken by the Giants and the first since 1994. Baltimore took fullback Steve Lee in the 1997 sixth round and New York chose wide receiver Thomas Lewis with the 24th pick in the 1994 first round.

2011 SIGNING CLASS

Twenty-three student-athletes will continue their football playing careers at Indiana University. Head coach Kevin Wilson's first recruiting class includes the 2010 Indiana Mr. Football award winner in addition to one four-star recruit and 17 three-star recruits in the Rivals.com and Scout.com rankings.

Seven players in the class reside from Indiana, seven from Ohio, three from Florida and one each from Arizona, Arkansas, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana and Michigan. The Hoosiers signed 12 players on defense, 10 on offense and one specialist. Indiana added four defensive linemen, three linebackers, three cornerbacks and two safeties. IU also welcomed four offensive linemen, three wide receivers, two running backs, one quarterback and one long snapper.

"There is good balance on both sides of the ball in this signing class," Wilson said. "We got a good mix of guys up front and skill guys. Our staff did a great job getting in on some guys late in the game. There is great athleticism and potential in this group. We brought in help in the secondary and up front across the board, and we are excited to get to work with these guys."

Below is a list of Indiana's 2011 signees:

- One of the most innovative and prolific offensive minds in the country, Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010.

- Spent the 2002-10 seasons at the University of Oklahoma. He served as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 2002-05 and as offensive coordinator and tight ends and fullbacks coach from 2006-10.

- Led some of the most productive offenses in the history of college football and coached in 10 consecutive bowl games, seven of which were BCS bowl appearances, including three national championship games (2003, 2004 and 2008 seasons).

- OU played in seven Big 12 Title games in Wilson's nine years, going 6-1 in those appearances. His offenses were vital to accumulating an overall record of 99-24 (.805) during his time in Norman, including seven 10-win seasons.

- In Wilson's nine years at Oklahoma, 22 offensive players were drafted into the NFL, including seven first-round selections, with three going among the first 10 picks and two in the top five.

- Served as position coach for three All-Americans, an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown), a Mackey Award finalist (Jermaine Gresham) and a two-time Rimington Trophy finalist (Vince Carter).

- Twice a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award - awarded to the nation's top assistant coach, Wilson won the award in 2008.

- As position coach, tutored three first-round draft picks (Jermaine Gresham, TE, 2010, Davin Joseph, OL, 2006 and Jammal Brown, OL, 2005), a second-round pick (Chris Chester, OL, 2005), a fifth-round pick (Brody Eldridge, TE, 2010), a sixth-round pick (Wes Sims, OL, 2004) and six free agents at Oklahoma.

- In 2010, the Sooners earned a 48-20 victory over Connecticut in the Fiesta Bowl and also claimed the seventh Big 12 championship in school history.

- During the 2010 campaign, running back DeMarco Murray set the school record for career touchdowns and also set an OU mark for career all-purpose yards.

- Guided wide receiver Ryan Broyles to eight Sooner receiving records, including career marks for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns. Broyles led the nation with 131 receptions in 2010.

- His 2008 offense shattered NCAA records by scoring 60 or more points in five straight games and 716 total points for the entire season to average more than 51 points per contest.

- The 2008 team played in the BCS National Championship Game behind Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Sam Bradford.

- Bradford ranked No. 1 nationally in passing efficiency as a freshman in 2007 and again in 2008, as he threw for more touchdowns (86) in two seasons than anyone in NCAA history.

- In the 2010 NFL Draft, Bradford went on to become the No. 1 overall pick by the St. Louis Rams. He was named the 2010 Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.

- Three of Wilson's tight ends, Jermaine Gresham, Brody Eldridge and Joe Jon Finley, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2007.

- Wilson was also instrumental in the development of Adrian Peterson. Peterson rushed for 1,925 yards in his freshman campaign in 2004, which set an OU single-season record and the highest total for a freshman in NCAA history.

- Peterson went on to place second in the Heisman voting, the highest finish ever by a freshman. He was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings as the seventh pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, where he was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year.

- Prior to his stint in Norman, Wilson was promoted to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Northwestern University in 2001 after serving as offensive coordinator in 1999 and 2000. He worked with the quarterbacks during his time in Evanston.

- Helped NU to the 2000 Alamo Bowl and quarterback Zac Kustok, a Unitas Award finalist, led the Big Ten in total offense.

- Running back Damian Anderson earned All-America honors and became the sixth-best rusher in Big Ten history.

- Followed Randy Walker to Northwestern from Miami after spending nine years in Oxford, coaching alongside former Indiana head coach Terry Hoepfner.

- Served as offensive line coach for his first two years at Miami and was promoted to offensive coordinator for the next seven, spending 1992-1997 in charge of the offensive line and the 1998 season with the quarterbacks.

Kevin Wilson was introduced as Indiana's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010.

- His offenses produced outstanding running backs, including Travis Prentice and Indiana running backs coach Deland McCullough.

- Prentice became the NCAA all-time leading scorer and the fifth-most prolific rusher in NCAA history, breaking McCullough's school records in the process.

- Wilson was the head coach and athletic director at Foard High School in North Carolina in 1989 and the offensive coordinator at North Carolina A&T in 1988.

- Spent a year as offensive line coach at Winston Salem State in 1987. Wilson began his career in coaching as a student and graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of North Carolina.

- A walk-on offensive lineman at North Carolina, he earned a scholarship while playing in four bowl games, including the 1980 Bluebonnet, the 1981 Gator, the 1982 Sun and the 1983 Peach Bowls.

- Earned his bachelor's degree in education (1984) and his master's degree in physical education (1987).

- Wilson was a three-sport star in high school at Maiden High in Maiden, N.C.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT KEVIN WILSON

BILL POLIAN, President of the Indianapolis Colts:

"Over the years we at the Colts have developed the highest regard for Coach Stoops and the Oklahoma program. We know that Coach Wilson brings the most solid of values and implementation with him from OU. In addition, we had the pleasure of drafting Brody Eldridge and saw first hand how fundamentally sound and well prepared he was. I am certain that is a direct reflection of what Coach Wilson did with the OU offense. I think Hoosier fans will be excited about the total program and offensive approach that Coach Wilson will bring to Bloomington. We wish him the best in his new position."

BILL MALLORY, former IU Head Football Coach (1984-96):

"I know about Kevin through his relationship with Randy Walker, who was like a son to me. Randy had the greatest respect for Kevin and he really thought he was an excellent coach. Kevin has a tremendous coaching background and is a good, quality coach and person."

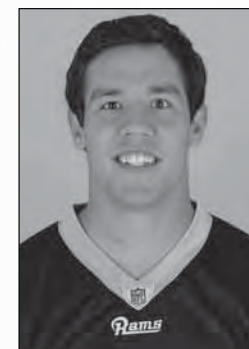

BOB STOOPS, Oklahoma Head Football Coach:

"We want to thank Kevin for his role in helping our program win six Big 12 Championships over the last nine seasons. His attention to detail, innovation and ability to develop players to their fullest ability have helped us remain a strong program. Our offenses have been effective because they're multiple and dynamic, and yet loyal to the basic football principles of being physical and fundamentally sound. By going to Indiana, Kevin returns to a region of the country and a conference that he knows very well. He'll have a solid plan for the football program there and the dedication required to carry it out. Kevin, Angie and the entire Wilson family leave with our gratitude for a job well done with the Sooners, and our best wishes for continued success with the Hoosiers."

SAM BRADFORD, St. Louis Rams Quarterback, 2010 No. 1 Overall Pick:

"Coach Wilson is a great coach. Playing in his system definitely prepared me for the NFL and what I am doing right now. If you look at what he did with our offense at Oklahoma, it speaks volumes about the coach he is. He has a great feel for offense, is a people person and has a great personality. He will have a lot of success at Indiana and is a great hire."

SEAN PAYTON, Head Coach of the New Orleans Saints:

"Having worked with Kevin at Miami (Ohio) for two years (1994-95) while he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, I know that he takes the job as head coach at Indiana University prepared with tremendous experience, and an understanding of what is required to be successful."

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT KEVIN WILSON

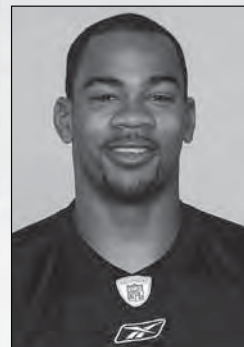

KIRK HERBSTREIT, ESPN College Football Analyst:

"I've been following Kevin in his career for a long time. The interesting thing about this marriage between Kevin and Indiana is his background with Randy Walker at Miami (Ohio) and Northwestern. Kevin is very familiar with the Big Ten and the Midwest, spending time there before moving on to a dominate program like Oklahoma. He's grown so much at Oklahoma, too. When you combine his knowledge, his background and his ability to recruit; I think it's a perfect fit for what IU is looking for."

ANTWAAN RANDLE EL, Pittsburgh Steelers Wide Receiver and Former Hoosier Great:

"With being at Oklahoma for the last nine years, he knows exactly what it takes to win. Add in his previous experience coaching and playing in the Midwest, and I think he has the right combination to make a nice fit for Indiana. He has some A-pluses in many of the categories that administrators and IU fans would like to see."

TRENT GREEN, Former NFL & IU Quarterback:

"I'm excited for the future of Indiana Football and what Kevin Wilson brings to the university. His background as a coach, his ability to develop student-athletes and his strong family values make him an excellent candidate to lead the Hoosiers."

DAVIN JOSEPH, Tampa Bay Buccaneers Guard:

"When you play for Coach Wilson, your best is expected at all times. Excuses are few and far between. I've played for some great offensive line coaches, but he is the best I've played for as a complete person. Not only is he a great coach, but a great father, a great friend and a great person. He really pushed me. Challenged me as a player, challenged me as a student; all to make me a complete person. Since then he's always had a special place in my heart."

BRODY ELDRIDGE, Indianapolis Colts Tight End:

"IU Fans should get excited because a great coach is coming to town and he is going to do great things there. Coach Wilson deserves a lot of the credit for where I am now."

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

The symbol of football supremacy between Indiana and Purdue, the Old Oaken Bucket, has become one of the nation's most recognized and famed trophies in its 86 years of spirited rivalry.

Both institutions had been meeting on the football field since 1891 when the Indiana and Purdue Alumni Clubs of Chicago held a joint meeting in 1925 to "discuss the possibility of undertaking a worthy joint enterprise on behalf of the two schools." Dr. Clarence Jones proposed the creation of a traditional football trophy to go to the winner of the annual clash. Dr. Jones and Russel Gray of Purdue were appointed to recommend a suitable trophy by J. Frank Lindsey, (Indiana, class of 1913), who was elected chairman of the joint committee.

At a later meeting they recommended “an old oaken bucket as the most typical Hoosier form of trophy, that the bucket should be taken from some well in Indiana, and that a chain to be made of bronze block ‘I’ and ‘P’ letters should be provided for the bucket. The school winning the traditional football game each year should have possession of the ‘Old Oaken Bucket’ until the next game and should attach the block letter representing the winning school to the bail with the score engraved on the latter link.”

Fritz Ernst of Purdue and Indiana's Wiley J. Huddle were given the task of finding the bucket. They located it on the old Bruner Farm between Kent and Hanover in southern Indiana. The region had been settled by the Bruner family in the 1840s, making today's bucket well over 150 years of age.

Excellent repair work put the bucket, moss and mold-covered with some staves showing signs of decay, into good shape for its initial appearance, which ended in a 0-0 tie in 1925.

SMITHVILLE CRIMSON & GOLD CUP

The rivalry between Indiana and Purdue continues with the 2011-12 Smithville Crimson & Gold Cup. The overall winner of the contest will be awarded a trophy at the end of the season.

Indiana defeated Purdue by an 11-9 total to capture the Smithville Crimson & Gold Cup in 2010-11. The Hoosiers lead the all-sports competition between the two schools, 4-1-2.

Each sport can earn one point toward the overall championship. A total of 20 points can be won. The winner of regular season head-to-head competition earns the point for its institution. BOWL HISTORY

1968 ROSE BOWL

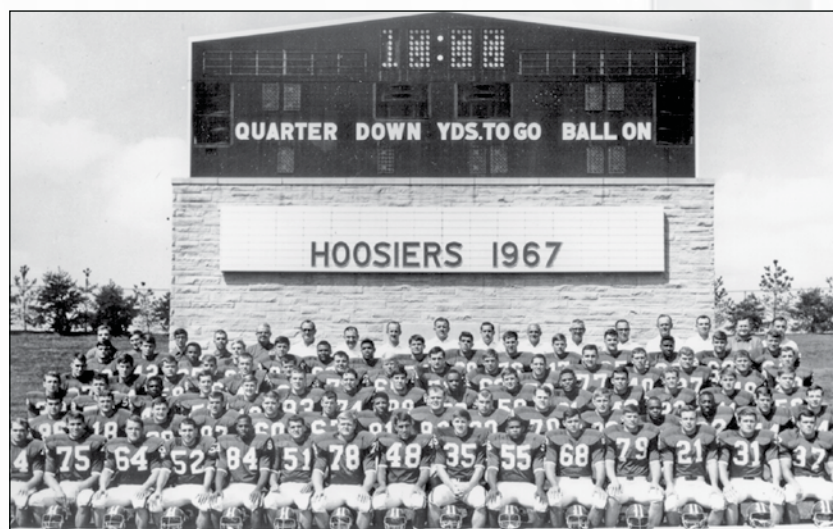

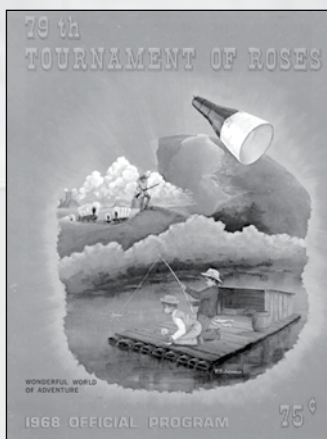

JANUARY 1, 1968
PASADENA, CALIF.
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 14, INDIANA 3

On Nov. 25, 1967, Indiana University improved its record to 9-1 with a 19-14 upset win over Purdue in the regular-season finale. The win clinched the Big Ten title and secured the Hoosiers' initial postseason bid - a trip to the Rose Bowl and a tilt against top-ranked and O.J. Simpson-led Southern California. Remarkably, just one season earlier in 1966, Indiana had finished the season with a 1-8-1 record.

IU's only Rose Bowl appearance would not be an easy task for the Hoosiers. However, 102,946 fans watched intently as Indiana would give the Trojans everything they could handle for four quarters.

USC tallied first when All-America running back Simpson (25-128-2TDs rushing) scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap an 84-yard scoring drive. Indiana would answer just one quarter later. The Hoosiers had a first-and-goal inside the Southern California 10-yard line but could not score a touchdown. However, Indiana kicker David Kornowa did connect on a 27-yard field goal attempt that pulled the Hoosiers to within 7-3, a lead that USC would take into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Trojans put together their final scoring drive of the day. This time it was a 45-yard drive capped by an eight-yard touchdown run by Simpson. The "Cardiac Kids," a nickname that IU had been given because of several exciting comebacks throughout the 1967 campaign, would threaten one more time but could not close the gap. IU moved to the USC 37-yard line midway through the fourth stanza but failed on two chances to gain a first down with just inches to go.

BOWL HISTORY

1979 HOLIDAY BOWL

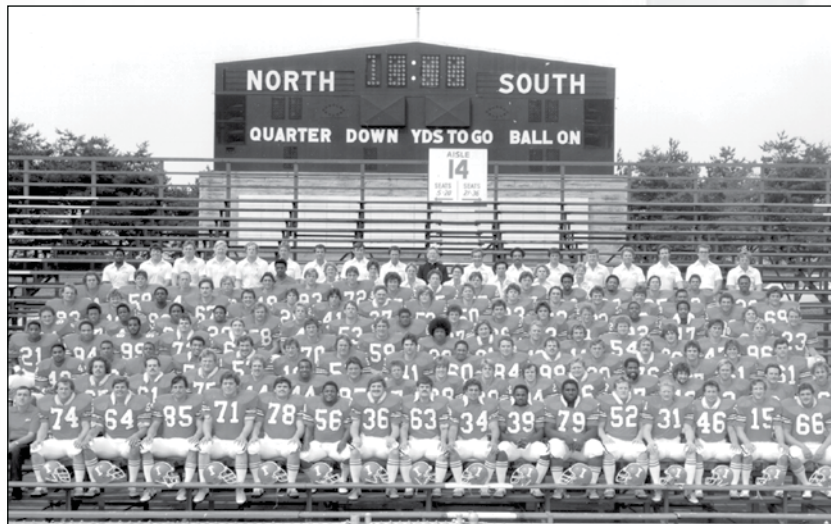

DECEMBER 21, 1979
SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
INDIANA 38, BRIGHAM YOUNG 37

Many people described it as the most exciting game of the 1979 bowl season. The 1979 Holiday Bowl featured Indiana and Brigham Young. The two squads would combine to score 75 total points in addition to tallying 52 first downs and 874 yards of total offense. However, after eight lead changes, Indiana stood victorious, 38-37, over the previously unbeaten Cougars.

Having finished the 1979 regular season with a 7-4 record, Indiana looked to gain its initial bowl victory when it faced off against the Cougars. It was a tight battle throughout as Brigham Young quarterback Marc Wilson completed 28-of-43 passes for 380 yards and 2 TDs. Throughout the game, he showed many reasons why he led the nation in passing and total offense during the regular season. However, IU found a way to answer every BYU score.

The Cougars would take a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter, but IU tallied right back when running back Mike Harkrader (24-71-1TD rushing) scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 28-24 lead. Indiana kicker Kevin Kellogg would then connect on a 26-yard field goal to increase the IU lead to 31-24. However, a 29-yard field goal by BYU and a 15-yard touchdown strike from Wilson to fullback Eric Lane, put the Cougars in front, 34-31, at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter did not lack for theatrics. BYU would score the quarter's first points to increase its lead to 37-31. However, Indiana's Tim Wilbur countered with a 62-yard punt return to tie the game at 37-37. Kellogg would add the extra point to give IU a one-point advantage with 6:53 remaining in the contest. Brigham Young had the opportunity to win the contest on a field goal attempt with just 11 seconds remaining. However, a 27-yard effort by Cougar kicker Brent Johnson failed, and IU held on for the thrilling 38-37 victory.

BOWL HISTORY

1986 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1986
BIRMINGHAM, ALA.
FLORIDA STATE 27, INDIANA 13

Although he finished with an 0-11 record during his first campaign at Indiana in 1984, it would take Bill Mallory just three seasons to lead the Hoosiers to their first bowl appearance under his direction. Indiana finished with a 6-5 regular-season record in 1986 and capped its season by playing a talented Florida State team in the 1986 All-American Bowl on New Year's Eve in Birmingham, Ala.

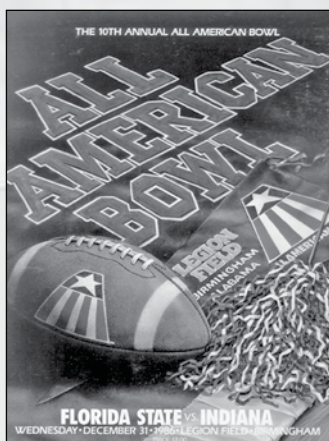

Despite losing 27-13, the Hoosiers would go on to make bowl appearances following four of the next five seasons.

Florida State used four time-consuming scoring drives that averaged 66 yards each to capture the 10th annual All-American Bowl. IU penetrated inside the Seminole 35-yard line four times without a score.

Indiana would tally first as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the Hoosiers a 3-0 lead. However, Florida State running back Sammie Smith (25-205-2TDs) scored on runs of four and nine yards in the first and second quarters, respectively, to give the Seminoles a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Seminoles would score another touchdown during the third quarter that would essentially clinch the victory. IU did close the gap to within 20-13 in the fourth quarter, but FSU iced the game with a 68-yard scoring drive.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who was playing in his first bowl game, finished with 127 rushing yards on 28 carries and quarterback Dave Kramme threw for 168 yards. IU dominated the time of possession and totaled more first downs (23-20) and total yards (383-342) than Florida State. However, the Seminoles rushed for 288 yards and were forced into third-down situations on just three occasions during the entire game.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 PEACH BOWL

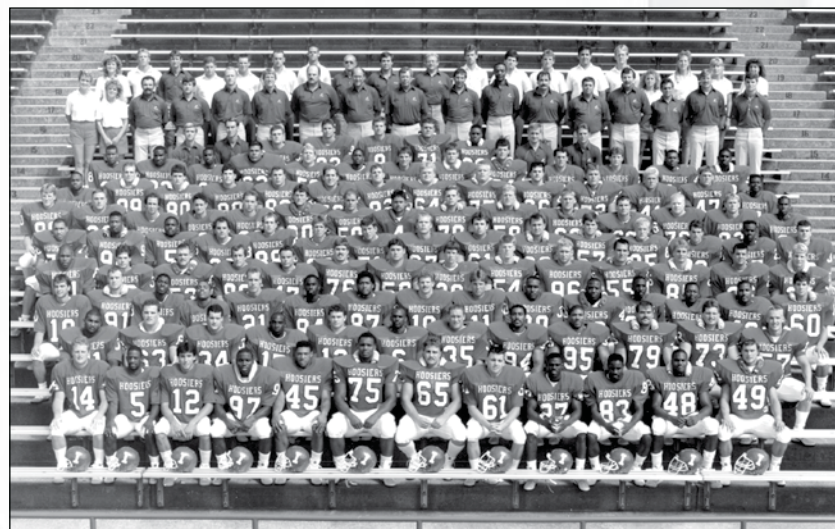

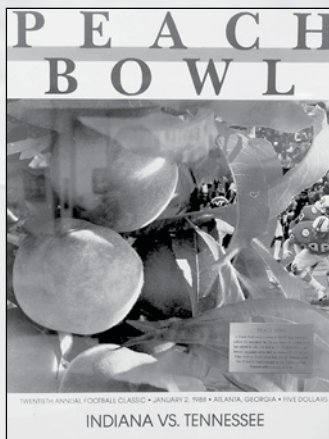

JANUARY 2, 1988
ATLANTA, GA.
TENNESSEE 27, INDIANA 22

Tennessee drove 40 yards in nine plays and scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Reggie Cobb with just 1:52 remaining in the game to clinch a 27-22 victory over Indiana in the 20th Peach Bowl. The game, which was played on Jan. 2, 1988, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, was witnessed by 58,737 fans. Despite the disappointing loss, IU finished the season with an 8-4 record, which included wins over Michigan and Ohio State.

The Volunteers jumped to a quick 21-3 second-quarter lead. That same stanza, UT blocked an Indiana punt on the IU 9-yard line that gave the Volunteers an opportunity to put the game out of reach. However, IU forced a fumble and drove 91 yards for a touchdown, a 43-yard pass play from quarterback Dave Schnell (33-18-218-1TD-2INTs) to wide receiver Ernie Jones (7-150-1TD). The score narrowed IU's deficit to 21-10 prior to halftime.

The lone score of the third period was a 12-yard run by running back Anthony Thompson (18-67-1TD) that moved Indiana to within 21-16, however, the two-point conversion failed. In the fourth quarter, Indiana scored on a fake field goal attempt when tight end Tim Jorden ran 12 yards for a score that gave IU a one-point lead, 22-21. The two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Tennessee, which had come from behind on four other occasions during the 1987 campaign would turn the trick again as Cobb scored his second touchdown of the game, this one a 9-yard run, to give Tennessee the 27-22 victory.

Tennessee gained 474 yards of total offense, including 146 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Cobb, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. However, Jones was just as impressive, as he finished with 246 all-purpose yards (150 receiving, 15 rushing, 81 kickoff returns). Indiana linebacker Van Waiters was recognized as the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 LIBERTY BOWL

DECEMBER 28, 1988
MEMPHIS, TENN.
INDIANA 34, SOUTH CAROLINA 10

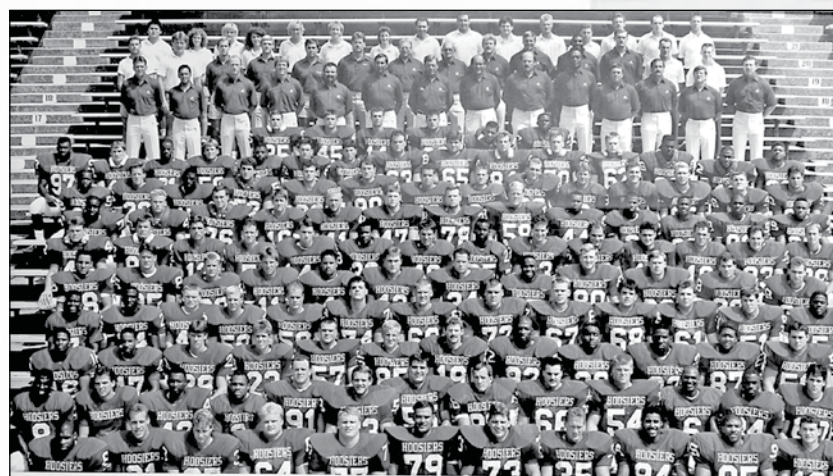

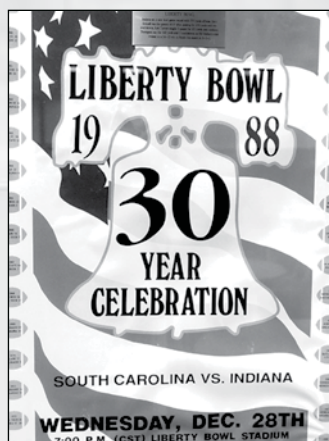

After finishing the regular season with a 7-3-1 record and a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, Indiana earned a postseason berth for the third consecutive year and played South Carolina in the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Hoosiers dominated the game and cruised to a 34-10 victory before 39,210 fans.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson (26-140-2TDs) began the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, and the Hoosiers would add 10 more second-quarter points to take a 17-0 halftime lead. The Gamecocks would close the gap to 17-7 in the third quarter when they scored on a 34-yard return of a blocked punt. The two teams would then trade third-quarter field goals and the fourth quarter began with Indiana leading, 20-10.

Although Indiana dominated throughout, the game-breaking play occurred on the first snap of the fourth quarter when Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell (31-16-378-2TDs-1INT) hooked up with wide receiver Rob Turner (5-182-1TD) on an 88-yard touchdown pass that upped IU's lead to 27-10. Thompson would cap the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run later that quarter that earned him a tie for the Big Ten single-season touchdown record with 26 scores.

Indiana set a Liberty Bowl record with 575 yards of total offense. South Carolina, on the other hand, could muster only 153 total yards, including just 23 yards rushing. The IU defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble to go along with six quarterback sacks.

Schnell was the game's Most Valuable Player, and wide receiver Tony Buford caught three passes for 100 yards.

BOWL HISTORY

1990 PEACH BOWL

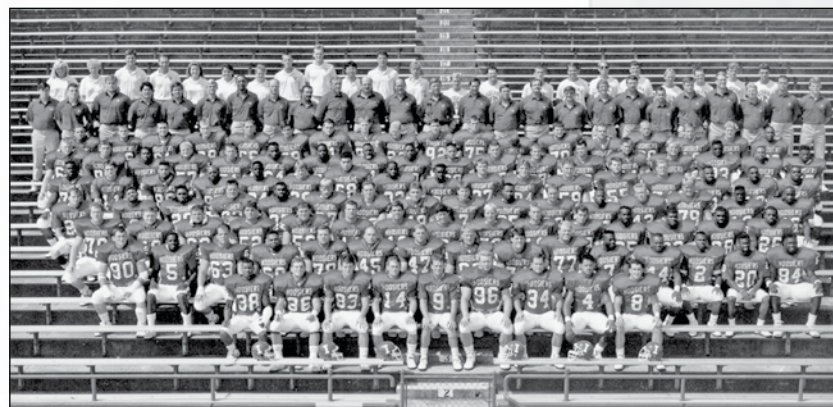

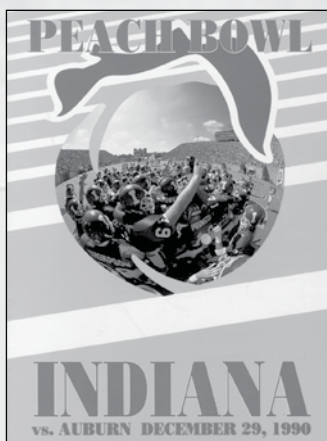

DECEMBER 30, 1990
ATLANTA, GA.
AUBURN 27, INDIANA 23

Indiana finished with a 6-4-1 regular-season record in 1990, a mark good enough to earn the Hoosiers a berth in the Peach Bowl for a date with the Auburn Tigers. The game, which was played at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 30, 1990, was one of the best games played during the 1990 bowl season.

Auburn led Indiana 17-10 at halftime and increased its lead to 20-10 on a 43-yard field goal during the third quarter, but the Hoosiers returned the favor as quarterback Trent Green scored on touchdown runs of two and 11 yards to give IU a 23-20 lead.

However, Auburn quarterback Stan White (48-31-351-1TD passing and 2 TD runs) would direct the Tigers on a 13-play, 72-yard, 1:40-minute, scoring drive. He capped the drive himself when he scored on a 1-yard run with just 39 seconds remaining in the game. The touchdown gave Auburn a 27-23 victory.

Auburn dominated the game statistically, as the Tigers tallied 440 total yards to IU's 220. However, Indiana utilized a solid kicking game to keep the game close. Trent Green tied a Peach Bowl record with his three rushing touchdowns while running back Vaughn Dunbar (21-81) and free safety Mike Dumas (14 tackles, 4 passes broken up) earned offensive and defensive Most Valuable Player honors, respectively.

BOWL HISTORY

1991 COPPER BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1991
TUCSON, ARIZ.
INDIANA 24, BAYLOR 0

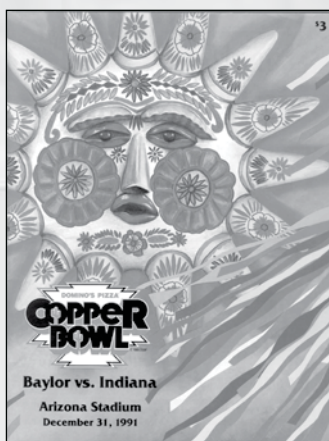

In one of the most impressive performances by any team during the 1991 bowl season, Indiana dominated a highly-regarded Baylor team in the Copper Bowl, 24-0.

Indiana wasted little time getting started as it jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead and was never threatened on its way to winning its second bowl game in four years.

Indiana quarterback Trent Green (21-11-165-0-0 passing, 2 rushing touchdowns) broke the Hoosiers into the scoring column when he tallied a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. IU would increase its lead one quarter later when kicker Scott Bonnell connected on a 27-yard field goal attempt and running back Vaughn Dunbar (28-106-1TD rushing) scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 17-0 halftime advantage.

IU's only scary moment came in the third quarter when Baylor reached Indiana's 2-yard line. However, a muffed handoff resulted in a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by free safety Damon Watts and the game was, for all intents and purposes, over.

Dunbar won game Most Valuable Player honors on offense and linebacker Mark Hagen (11 tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, and 1 pass broken up) was the game's defensive MVP.

BOWL HISTORY

2007 INSIGHT BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 2007

TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE 49, INDIANA 33

Indiana capped off an emotional season in achieving late head coach Terry Hoeggner's dream of "Playing 13," as the Hoosiers returned to a postseason bowl for the first time in 14 years at the 2007 Insight Bowl.

Oklahoma State's no-huddle offense took a strong first half lead, and it was too much for a spirited Hoosier squad to overcome in a 49-33 defeat. The Hoosiers rallied from a 35-10 halftime deficit to get within two scores on two separate occasions in the second half.

Kellen Lewis threw for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the loss, tying IU great Antwaan Randle El for first place on the all-time list with 42 TD passes in his career. The sophomore quarterback also ran for 83 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown on the ground.

The Hoosiers drove 52 yards on 11 plays on their opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on Austin Starr's 43-yard field goal at the 10:41 mark of the opening quarter. But OSU scored the next 28 points of the game before the Hoosiers made it 28-10 on a Marcus Thigpen 4-yard TD grab. Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson tacked on a 1-yard run just before the half to give OSU a 25-point lead at the break.

IU struck with the first points of the second half on a Lewis 1-yard run that followed a 4th-and-8 conversion on a fake field goal pass from Lewis to Starr. The Cowboys rebutted with a TD of their own, and 16 fourth quarter points by the Hoosiers proved to not be enough to overcome the early deficit.

After coaching the Hoosiers to winning records in 1898 and 1899, James Horne and his IU football team joined the Western Conference at the beginning of the century. While leading his IU teams to six .500-or-better records in his seven years, Horne compiled a career record of 33-21-5. His best season came in 1899 when he led the Hoosiers to a 6-2 mark. As a member of the Big Ten, IU enjoyed its best season in Horne's last season as head coach when the team achieved a 6-4 record in 1904.

JAMES M. SHELDON • 1905-1913

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 35-26-3

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 7-25-2

With a 35-26-3 record, James Sheldon proved to be one of the most successful coaches in IU football's early years. His 8-1-1 record as a rookie coach in 1905 was his best mark. As IU's track and field coach, Hayes led the Hoosiers to eight Big Ten championships and 70 Big Ten team and individual titles in indoor and outdoor track and field. Indiana also won the 1932 NCAA outdoor track and field championships. Indiana's world-class outdoor track, and the NCAA trophy for the team champion in cross country, are both named in his honor.

ALVIN N. (BO) MCMILLIN • 1934-1947

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 63-48-11

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 34-34-6

One of Indiana's most successful coaches, Bo McMillin holds the honor of being the only coach to ever lead the Hoosiers to an outright Big Ten Championship. In 1945, he led IU to its only unbeaten record (9-0-1) and garnered Man of the Year and Coach of the Year honors by the Football Writers Association and the Football Coaches Association. While at Indiana, McMillin guided IU to 10 seasons of .500 or better, including a stretch of six consecutive years. His 34-34-6 Big Ten mark is the best winning percentage in Big Ten play for an Indiana coach, as is his overall winning percentage (.562).

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 4-19

Clyde Smith took over IU in 1948 after serving as an assistant coach on Bo McMillin's staff. His best record at Indiana was 3-5-1, which he accomplished in 1950. Impressively, half of Smith's eight career victories were against Big Ten opponents.

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-24

After coaching under legendary Frank Leahy at Notre Dame, Bernie Crimmings took over at the Hoosier helm in 1952. In five seasons, Crimmings led the team to a 13-32 record. A native of Louisville, Crimmings was a three-sport star for St. Xavier High School before starring for the Fighting Irish for four seasons at right halfback, fullback and guard. He became the first man in Notre Dame's rich football history to win major awards at three different positions.

ALL-TIME COACHES

BOB HICKS • 1957

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 1-8

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 0-6

Bob Hicks served as Indiana's interim head coach for one season prior to becoming its head line coach when Phil Dickens assumed the head coach's role. Hicks served as head coach for a season as Dickens sat out for alleged recruiting violations. A 1948 graduate of Tennessee, Hicks played on the line for UT. After five years coaching at the high school level, he received his first opportunity to coach as a member of Dickens' staff at Wyoming, where he helped build highly competitive lines for the Cowboys' powerhouse clubs. Hicks would coach on the IU staff for 16 years.

PHIL DICKENS • 1958-1964

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27-2

Phil Dickens, widely recognized as one of Tennessee's all-time greatest tailbacks, tallied an 89-67-11 record during his 16-year coaching career at Wofford, Wyoming and Indiana. He became IU's head coach after leading Wyoming to a Skyline championship and an undefeated season in 1956. At Indiana, Dickens accumulated a 20-41-2 record. His best record came in 1958 (3-2-1), when he guided the Hoosiers to a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten. Dickens earned Midwest Coach of the Year honors that season and finished third in national voting. As a player at Tennessee he was an unanimous All-SEC pick in 1936 and was selected as the Volunteers' outstanding athlete during each of his four years at the school.

JOHN PONT • 1965-1972

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 21-36-1

John Pont holds the distinction of being the only coach to ever guide Indiana to a Rose Bowl appearance. He accomplished that feat in 1967, when he led the Hoosiers to a 9-2 record, a Big Ten co-championship and an appearance in the Rose Bowl against eventual national champion Southern California. Perhaps more remarkable than the Hoosiers' strong showing against the national champs was the fact that this same team could only muster a 1-8-1 record the previous season, thus making the 1967 Big Ten Champions a true "rags to roses" story. Pont earned unanimous national coach of the year honors that season and was selected as head coach of the East team in the 1968 Coaches' All-American game. Pont's jersey is retired at Miami (Ohio) and in 1969 he was one of six charter members inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

LEE CORSO • 1973-1982

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 28-52-2

Lee Corso took over as head football coach in 1973 after leading the Louisville Cardinals to two Missouri Valley Conference titles in four seasons. At IU, he led the Hoosiers to two winning seasons and a 1979 Holiday Bowl victory over previously unbeaten Brigham Young. Indiana's victory over the Cougars propelled Corso's team to 16th in the UPI poll, the Hoosiers' first top-20 ranking since 1967. While at Indiana, Corso was active with the American Football Coaches Association. He also served on the Ethics Committee, the Rules Committee and the NCAA Public Relations Seminar. During his tenure, he coached in the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. Corso is currently employed by ESPN, where he works as a studio analyst on College Gameday.

SAM WYCHE • 1983

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 3-8

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 2-7

Sam Wyche was Indiana's head football coach for only one season prior to leaving for the National Football League. An assistant coach on Bill Walsh's San Francisco 49ers staff that won the Super Bowl following the 1981 season, Wyche was named IU head coach in 1983 and guided the Hoosiers to a 3-8 mark that year. He then left Indiana to become the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals. He led that squad to the 1988 AFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth against the 49ers. Wyche coached the Bengals for eight seasons before becoming the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. He also coached the Bucs for five seasons, worked as a color commentator on NFL broadcasts and served as the Buffalo Bills' quarterbacks coordinator.

BILL MALLORY • 1984-1996

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 39-65-1

prominence. While compiling a 165-121-4 (.576) career record at Miami (Ohio), Colorado, Northern Illinois and Indiana, Mallory became one of only seven coaches ever to guide three different programs to top-20 finishes in the national polls. In 1987, Mallory became the first Big Ten coach to be awarded back-to-back coach of the year honors. That year, he led the Hoosiers to an 8-4 record, a second-place finish in the Big Ten, and a Peach Bowl appearance. Mallory led the Hoosiers to six bowl games, including victories in the 1988 Liberty Bowl and the 1991 Copper Bowl. He also led IU to a top-20 ranking in 1988 and finished his career as IU's all-time winningest football coach with 69 wins.

CAM CAMERON • 1997-2001 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 18-37 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 12-28

Cam Cameron led the Hoosiers for five seasons and compiled a record of 18-37. He was the second Indiana alum (A.B. Woodford, 1887) to take over at the helm of the IU football program. Cameron played both football and basketball for Indiana in the early 1980s. Prior to joining the Indiana coaching ranks, he served as an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins in the NFL. Cameron brought an explosive offense to Memorial Stadium and a new look to Hoosier football. Indiana took the field with a new oval IU logo. Indiana averaged 23.6 points per game under Cameron's guidance. The Hoosiers enjoyed success as well in the classroom, as IU was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its exemplary football graduation rates in each of Cameron's final four seasons.

GERRY DINARDO • 2002-2004 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 3-21

In his first season with the Hoosiers, Gerry DiNardo led Indiana to a 3-9 record and a 1-7 mark in the Big Ten, including a 3-3 mark at Memorial Stadium. Among those three wins was a come-from-behind, 32-29, upset of No. 23 Wisconsin. The Hoosiers trailed by 19 points in the third quarter before scoring the final 22 points of the game for the victory. During 2004, the Hoosiers had wins over No. 24 Oregon (30-24) and No. 23 Minnesota (30-21). DiNardo finished his IU career with an 8-27 overall record.

TERRY HOEPPNER • 2005-2006 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 9-14 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 4-12

Terry Hoeppner was head coach of the Hoosiers for two years before passing away following a lengthy battle with brain cancer. He will always be remembered as one of the most influential coaches in school history. In just his second season at the helm of the Hoosier program, Hoeppner brought the Hoosiers on the brink of a bowl appearance in 2006. He led the youngest team in the Big Ten (49 true or redshirt freshmen and 72 underclassmen overall), to five victories - its most since the 2001 campaign - and restored an enthusiasm in IU football. The 2006 Hoosiers picked up three Big Ten wins for the first time since 2001, including a 31-28 win over No. 13 (Coaches) Iowa. Earning its final conference victory of the season, the Hoosiers dominated Michigan State, 46-21, on Homecoming to bring the Old

Brass Spittoon back to Bloomington for the first time since 2001. Hoeppner made an immediate impact in his first year at the helm of the Hoosier program. Coach Hep rejuvenated an IU fan base that enjoyed a 39-percent increase in per-game attendance, a 46-percent increase in overall season ticket sales and a 110-percent increase in student season ticket sales.

BILL LYNCH • 2007-2010 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 19-30 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Bill Lynch served at the helm of the Indiana football program from 2007-10. Lynch led the Hoosiers to a 7-6 record and a trip to the Insight Bowl in his first season. He became the only head coach in Hoosier history to guide a team to a bowl game in his debut season. Lynch led Indiana to its most wins since 1993, its first bowl appearance since that same season, and its first Old Oaken Bucket victory since 2001. The team's seven victories were the second most for a first-year Indiana head coach, behind only James M. Sheldon, who went 8-1-1 in 1905. IU boasted three All-Americans, three second-round NFL Draft picks, seven overall NFL Draft picks, 10 All-Big Ten selections, one Academic All-American and 74 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in his four seasons. Lynch also went 2-2 in four Old Oaken Bucket games.

GEORGE TALIAFERRO - 1945, 1947 SECOND TEAM 1948 FIRST TEAM

One in a long line of outstanding running backs who have excelled at Indiana University, George Taliaferro may best be known as the first African-American to be drafted by a National Football League team. The only IU football player to be named to All-America teams following three different seasons, he received first team recognition in 1948 after earning second team All-America honors in both 1945 and 1947.

BOB HOERNSCHEMEYER - 1943 FIRST TEAM

Although he played only two seasons of football for the Hoosiers, Bob Hoernschemeyer set two NCAA records for freshmen and earned third team All-America honors in 1943. That season he completed 70-of-155 passes for 1,136 yards and 13 touchdowns. Also an All-Big Ten pick in 1943, he went on to play professional football for the Chicago Rockets, Brooklyn Dodgers, Chicago Hornets and Detroit Lions.

After earning All-America honors as both an end and fullback, Pete Pihos became the second Indiana football player to be enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted in 1966. After helping Indiana set national records on offense in 1943, he returned from a stint in the Army to lead the Hoosiers in scoring during their Big Ten Championship season of 1945. In 1946, Pihos was named Indiana's Most Valuable Player while shattering previous IU records for touchdowns, total points and receptions.

BILL HILLENBRAND - 1941 THIRD TEAM 1942 FIRST TEAM

A fifth-place finisher in the 1942 Heisman Trophy balloting, Bill Hillenbrand led the Hoosiers in rushing (130-498) and passing (102-50-901-11TDs) that season on his way to earning first team All-America recognition and All-Big Ten honors. In 1941, he was the club's leading passer and earned third team All-America honors and was an All-Big Ten pick.

Prior to participating in World War II, Davis spent four successful seasons with the Cleveland Browns before retiring in 1942.

VERN HUFFMAN - 1936 SECOND TEAM

A football and basketball standout at Indiana, Vern Huffman was IU's first All-America quarterback. A second team All-America selection and the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 1936, Huffman is the only player in the history of IU to earn All-America honors in football and basketball. IU's Balfour Award winner for football following his senior season, Huffman played professional football for the Detroit Lions.

CHUCK BENNETT - 1928 SECOND TEAM

The first All-America running back in the history of Indiana University, Chuck Bennett earned second team honors in 1928. A team captain, Bennett also earned All-Big Ten honors and was voted his team's Most Valuable Player following the 1928 season.

CLARE RANDOLPH - 1928 SECOND TEAM

Indiana University's second football All-America selection, Clare Randolph earned second team honors following the 1928 season. Also an All-Big Ten pick, he was IU's Most Valuable Player in 1927, and he played professionally until 1936.

A member of Indiana's first Big Ten team, Zora Clevenger played for the Hoosiers from 1900-03 and earned All-America honors at center. A three-sport star, Clevenger drew wide-spread recognition for his speed and leadership. After retiring from coaching, Clevenger served as athletic director at Missouri and Kansas State before returning to Bloomington to work as Indiana's athletic director for 23 years.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

AUSTIN STARR -

2007 Academic All-American

Adding to his list of postseason recognitions, Indiana junior kicker Austin Starr was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America First Team in 2007. Starr became the seventh IU player to earn Academic All-America accolades. A 2008 graduate with a biology degree, Starr was named Academic All-Big Ten four times. For his performance on the field, the Logansport, Ind., native was named a finalist for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award, collected All-Big Ten honors and earned a spot on the Rivals.com All-Big Ten team. Starr set a new school record with 21 field goals in 2007, topping former NFL great Pete Stoyanovich's 17 in 1988. He also extended his school record by making his 15th attempt in a row in the first half of the Purdue game.

WILL MEYERS -

2005-06 Academic All-American

Will Meyers joined John Hammerstein as the only Hoosiers to have earned Academic All-America recognition twice in their careers. Meyers earned first team status in both 2005 and 2006 as an accounting major. He was also named Academic All-Big Ten in each of his final three seasons. The Chesterfield, Mo., native finished his career with 278 total tackles, and he made five of his six career interceptions as a senior.

JOHN HAMMERSTEIN -

1994-95 Academic All-American

One of two two-time Academic All-America selections in the history of the Indiana University football program, John Hammerstein was so honored following both his junior and senior campaigns. Also a four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, the Wapakoneta, Ohio, product won four letters as a defensive tackle at IU and finished his career with 15 tackles for loss. A member of a football family, John's brother, Mike, was a four-year letterman and All-America selection at Michigan, his brother, Mark, was an All-Big Ten pick for the Wolverines and his brother, Matt, played football at Yale. John majored in biology.

KEVIN SPEER -

1980 Academic All-American

Kevin Speer earned Academic All-America honors as a senior in 1980 after a stellar career both on and off the playing field. Also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten pick, Speer played center for the Hoosiers and helped pave the way for running back Mike Harkrader's 807 rushing yards and six touchdowns in 1979. To conclude the 1979 campaign, the 6-foot-4, 240-pound Speer helped lead the Hoosiers to a 38-37 victory over Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl. As a senior, he blocked for running back Lonnie Johnson and helped enable him to rush for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns. A product of Harrison High School in Evansville, Ind., Speer ranked first in his high school graduating class of 560 students. He majored in business at Indiana.

GLEN SCOLNIK -

1972 Academic All-American

As a senior in 1972, Glenn Scolnik won Academic All-America and Academic All-Big Ten honors after finishing the season with 53 receptions for 727 yards and six touchdowns. He also received recognition for his on-the-field performance in 1972, as he was an All-Big Ten selection and IU's Most Valuable Player. The 6-foot-3, 204-pound Scolnik was IU's leading receiver through the first four games of his junior campaign but suffered a pulled hamstring muscle that caused him to miss the remainder of the year. He did, however, catch 12 passes for 141 yards that season and pulled in 14 for 291 yards as a sophomore. A product of Munster, Ind., he played in the North-South Game in 1972 and spent the 1973 season as a wide receiver for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Scolnik was a liberal arts major at IU.

HARRY GONSO -

1967 Academic All-American

One of the finest quarterbacks in the history of Indiana University, Harry Gonso was an Academic All-America selection as a sophomore in 1967 and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors following his junior and senior campaigns. A product of Findlay, Ohio, Gonso was the Most Valuable Player on the IU squad that played Southern California in the Rose Bowl following the 1967 season. That year, he completed 67-of-143 passes for 931 yards and nine touchdowns and was an All-Big Ten selection. Despite missing the better portion of two games as a junior, he still finished the year with 1,109 passing yards and 12 touchdowns and won team MVP honors for the second consecutive season. The 5-foot-11, 187-pound Gonso finished his career by throwing for 1,336 yards and 11 touchdowns as a senior. Gonso was a pre-law major at Indiana.

BRAD BOMBA -

1956 Academic All-American

Indiana's first Academic All-America selection in football, Brad Bomba earned such honors following his senior season. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten pick, he earned third team All-America recognition for his play at end as a senior in 1956. Widely regarded for combining vicious blocking, defensive ability, and intense competitive spirit with his offensive talents, the 6-foot-3, 214-pound Bomba caught 31 passes for 407 yards and one touchdown as a senior and won the prestigious Balfour Award for bringing honor and distinction to Indiana University in the sport of football. As a sophomore, the Chicago native caught 11 passes for 221 yards. As a junior, he followed up his first campaign by catching 13 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns.

MICHAEL A. McROBBIE

Indiana University's 18th President on July 1, 2007

Michael A. McRobbie became Indiana University's eighteenth president on July 1, 2007. In making its unanimous decision to appoint him, the IU Board of Trustees cited McRobbie's extensive record of accomplishment in various senior administrative roles at IU over 10 years as well as his strong academic credentials. They stated that McRobbie's broad expertise in fostering research partnerships and his collaborative leadership style had contributed greatly to enhancing the educational and research missions of the university and to strengthening IU's glorious traditions in the arts.

McRobbie is responsible for IU's eight campus system which has a total budget of around $2.7 billion, and over 5000 faculty, 11,000 staff, and 100,000 students.

In his Inaugural Address, McRobbie set out a new vision for IU that stressed and reaffirmed IU's fundamental mission of excellence in research and teaching to be achieved through a great faculty, responsive and relevant education, an enhanced global presence, expanded infrastructure, a rededication to the arts and humanities, and new initiatives in engagement and economic development. He expanded on many of these themes and described a year of progress in his 2008 State of the University speech.

McRobbie became IU's vice president for information technology in 1997, and he led the university to national leadership in that field. This leadership was based on the IU Information Technology Strategic Plan, which he initiated and which is now considered a model for institutions across the nation. He also played a major role in the creation of the School of Informatics; directed the development of I-Light, the management of the Internet2 Abilene network and numerous other networks; and founded IU's Pervasive Technology Laboratories, funded in 1999 by a grant of $30 million from the Lilly Endowment—then the largest research grant to IU from a private organization. As president, he has directed the preparation of IU's new IT Strategic Plan. His efforts in information technology were recognized when he was named one of the Premier 100 IT leaders by Computer World Magazine.

In May 2003, McRobbie took on additional responsibilities as vice president for research. His aim was to improve the environment for research at IU by increasing external funding, expanding research space and facilities, and improving research support services. He was instrumental in securing a $53 million grant from the Lilly Endowment for the Indiana Metabolomics and Cytoomics Initiative (METACyt)—the largest grant ever obtained at IU Bloomington—and established the highly successful New Frontiers in the Arts and Humanities Program, which supports the creation of major works of art in various genres. He initiated a study of IU's research space needs, which will guide the development of new buildings and facilities under his presidency through the recently completed IU Master Plan, which he initiated.

McRobbie was appointed interim provost and vice president for academic affairs at IU Bloomington in 2006. In that position, he worked to rebuild academic leadership by appointing six new deans and a number of other key senior leaders, helped complete the IU Life Sciences Strategic Plan, further addressed the needs of arts and humanities programs, and oversaw the move of IU Bloomington to become a more selective campus, while ensuring that it remained accessible and affordable to low-income and minority students through a major increase in financial aid.

He also worked to reinvigorate IU's global relationships that support the university's international academic and educational programs. Over recent years he has led university delegations to China, Japan, and Korea, as well as visiting Israel, and has established or renewed cooperative agreements in research and education with several premier universities in those nations. He has also overseen the preparation of IU's International Strategic Plan.

A native of Australia, McRobbie came to IU from the Institute of Advanced Study at the Australian National University (ANU), where he was a professor of information science and chief executive officer of the Cooperative Research Centre for Advanced Computational Systems. He earned a bachelor's degree with first class honors from the University of Queensland and a doctoral degree from ANU. In 2007, the University of Queensland awarded him an honorary Doctor of Science. He was also awarded another Honorary Doctor of Science in 2008 by SungKyunKwan University in Korea.

McRobbie has been an active researcher in computer science and logic over his career. He has been principal investigator on numerous large grants from agencies such as the National Science Foundation, has published a number of books, and has served widely on editorial boards and conference committees.

He has had a substantial involvement in the development of the life and health sciences in Indiana and is a member of the Boards of Clarian Health Partners—one of the largest hospital systems in the United States—and the Riley Children's Hospital, one of America's leading children's hospitals.

He has had extensive experience in working with industry and has led large university/industry joint initiatives in various areas. Outside of the United States, he has had special experience working with industry, research, and government organizations in Asia, especially in Japan, and was a co-founder of the Asia Pacific Advanced Network (APAN) in 1996.

He has held numerous government, research and private sector committee, board, and advisory appointments nationally and internationally.

In addition to serving as IU's top administrator, McRobbie is a professor of cognitive science, computer science, informatics, and philosophy and an adjunct professor of library and information science on the IU Bloomington campus. He is also a professor of computer technology in the Purdue School of Engineering and professor of philosophy both at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). He recently became the first sitting IU president to be named an honorary member of the Alliance of Distinguished and Titled Professors. Though his academic career has focused primarily on information technology, he has demonstrated a continuing strong interest in and commitment to the humanities and was recently elected an honorary member of the Australian Academy of Humanities.

He holds numerous awards and honors and in 2007 was made a Sagamore of the Wabash by Indiana Governor Mitch Daniels, the highest honor the State can bestow.

IU's first lady, Laurie Burns McRobbie, is a native of Michigan. She has worked as a technologist for the last 20 years of her career, most recently serving as the executive director of member and partner relations for Internet2. She is an adjunct faculty member in IU's School of Informatics and also has a background in the humanities and a long involvement in women's issues. At IU she has used this extensive background to promote and advance scientific and mathematical literacy, particularly among groups who have historically been underrepresented in these fields. She has also continued her involvement in women's issues and in community organizations such as Middle Way House.

The McRobbies were both widowed, and they have six children—three each by their first marriages. They are both avid readers, especially of history; they collect art and enthusiastically attend as many concerts, operas, and plays as they can, and both greatly enjoy working out. Both have traveled extensively internationally and enjoy the challenges of new countries and cultures.

FRED GLASS

Vice President and Director of Athletics

Since assuming the role of Indiana University vice president and director of intercollegiate athletics on January 1, 2009, Fred Glass has worked tirelessly to return IU to its rightful place as one of the premier athletics departments in the country.

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie named Fred Glass as IU's vice president and director of intercollegiate athletics in the fall of 2008. At the press conference announcing his appointment, Glass set out the four priorities that have been the hallmark of his tenure as athletic director: 1.) play by the rules; 2.) achieve academically and graduate student-athletes; 3.) excel athletically and win championships; 4.) integrate athletics into the rest of the University. Now in just his third year as athletic director, Glass' dynamic and passionate leadership has been the driving force behind his alma mater's tremendous improvement in all of those areas.

To help generate the financial resources necessary to pursue these priorities, Glass has cut his senior staff by nearly a half (4 of 9 positions) freeing up well over a half million dollars; secured the largest gift in the history of IU Athletics: $15 million from Bill and Gayle Cook; renegotiated a lucrative 10-year multimedia rights agreement with Learfield Sports; and negotiated a $3 million agreement to play Penn State at Fed-Ex Field, among other innovative revenue generating initiatives. In 2009, Glass' first year, football attendance increased by 32%, the third largest one year percentage increase in average attendance in the country and the highest IU attendance since 1992; and doubled 2009-2010 men's basketball student season ticket sales to 6,400 - highest in the conference-propelling Indiana to the 11th highest total attendance in the country and second highest in the conference. In 2010-2011, football attendance increased once again and Indiana finished second in the Big Ten in total men's basketball attendance.

With the help of these additional resources, Glass has furthered the department's priorities by adding personnel to make IU's compliance staff the second largest in the conference; adding academic advisors to move IU from ninth to third in the conference in student-athlete to academic advisor ratio; building a state of the art, 25,800 square foot, $3 million academic center moving IU from the smallest to the fourth largest and most modern academic center in the conference; opening a 25,000 square foot strength and conditioning center, upon completion the largest facility of its kind in the Big Ten - replacing a facility that ranked last in the conference; opening Cook Hall, the finest basketball development facility and program shrine in the country; and otherwise improving the facilities of all 24 of IU's sports programs. He has also reached out to campus to forge stronger ties between Athletics and the Kelley School of Business, Jacobs School of Music, the Provost's Office, the Bloomington Faculty Council, and the School of Journalism, among others.

In the fall of 2010, Glass unveiled a creed that represents Indiana University Athletics' core values, mission statement, and strategic plan all rolled into one, The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. It serves as the standard by which IU Athletics will set priorities, allocate resources, and make decisions. To ensure that the department meets the promise of The Spirit of Indiana, Glass also established The Indiana University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Excellence Academy. Glass predicted that the Excellence Academy would soon emerge as the nation's most innovative and comprehensive student-athlete development program.

The Excellence Academy integrates athletic department and university resources to assess, measure and ensure progress toward specific personal development goals. The Academy fully integrates the athletic department's academic support and life skills development programs, innovative strength and conditioning regimens, advanced sports medicine and athletic training services, expert sports psychology staff, and one of the very few full-time sports nutritionists in intercollegiate athletics, along with cutting-edge resources from other parts of the university, including the School of Public Health, the Office of the Provost, and the School of Education among others.

In 2011, Glass established the Spirit of Indiana Showcase, an annual awards gala celebrating the top athletic and academic achievements of IU student-athletes over the last year. Glass also announced the creation of The Spirit of Indiana Director's Award that honors the senior male and female student-athletes who, on the whole, best personify the tenets of The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team.

In Glass' tenure, Indiana student-athletes have excelled in the classroom and on the playing field. 94% of IU student-athletes who exhaust their eligibility earn an IU degree. For the spring 2011 semester, the all-sport GPA was 3.19, and in 2011, over half of Indiana's sports (13) earned a perfect APR score of 1000. In the 2010-11 school year, 242 Indiana University student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten distinction.

On the field since Glass' arrival, six IU teams have won Big Ten Championships, 14 student-athletes have been named Big Ten Player of the Year in their respective sports (most in the conference), and the department has produced four NCAA individual champions.

Glass has also made key coaching hires in his short tenure. In the fall of 2009, Glass hired men's soccer coach Todd Yeagley who went on to win the Big Ten championship and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in his first season at Indiana in 2010. In December of 2010, Glass hired highly respected and record setting offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson from Oklahoma as Indiana's new head football coach.

Under Glass' stewardship, Indiana Athletics has been solvent financially. In 2009-2010, Indiana was one of 22 Division I public universities whose athletic departments made money.

Glass loves supporting IU's student-athletes and often attends competitions and practices, including travelling on road trips with the teams. Glass enjoys being present with the student-athletes, whether it's wearing a kilt at a field hockey game as a result of a challenge with players, sitting on the bench with the volleyball and softball teams, riding the bus with the baseball team, or jumping in the pool with the women's swimming and diving team upon winning their third straight Big Ten title. He also enjoys interacting with IU fans and is a fixture at pregame tailgate gatherings and cheering with the fans in the stands.

As a university vice president, he often attends academic events on campus, including the monthly meetings of the President's Cabinet of which he is a member. Glass has established an athletics sustainability initiative with the goal of becoming "the greenest athletic department in the Big Ten". He served as co-chair of Indiana University's 2010 United Way campaign, during which the Department of Athletics participation rate soared from 9% to 80%. In April, 2010 Glass was presented the Trevor R. Brown Award by the students of the Indiana Daily Student and the Arbutus for his contributions to the experiences of student journalists. In the spring of 2011, Glass had his head shaved to stand in solidarity with kids fighting cancer at a St. Baldrick's event in Indianapolis, raising over $20,000 for the cause.

Glass is a double graduate of Indiana University who had been a well known Indianapolis lawyer and civic leader before being named a vice president and the director of intercollegiate athletics at his alma mater. Born in Indianapolis, Glass earned bachelor's and law degrees from IU in 1981 and 1984, respectively.

Glass played a central role in several major sports-related initiatives in Indianapolis, including negotiating the 30-year agreement to keep the Colts in Indianapolis, developing Lucas Oil Stadium and an expanded Indiana Convention Center, and helping to negotiate the arrangement to regularly bring Final Fours and other major NCAA events to the city. Formerly a partner in the law firm of Baker & Daniels, Glass served as chairman of the firm's management committee and as the volunteer president of the city's Capital Improvement Board. Glass also has served as Chief of Staff to

Glass also served as president of the City of Indianapolis' 2011 Super Bowl Bid Committee, which although not successful for that year, has been credited with successfully laying the groundwork for the city's successful bid for 2012. At the time of Glass' appointment Tony Dungy, former head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, said, "I worked very closely with Fred on the Super Bowl effort, and I was very impressed with his vision, leadership and judgment. Indiana University has made an outstanding choice."

Upon his appointment of Glass, Indiana University President Michael McRobbie said, "In all of these major undertakings, Fred demonstrated a remarkable talent for leadership, for mastering the details of big challenges, for diplomacy, and for consensus building. He has a well-earned reputation as someone who can get the big things done. He is exactly the person we need to take on the challenges our Athletics Department will encounter in the next decade."

Glass and his wife, Barbara, who Fred met at an IU football game and graduated from IU in 1980, are the parents of four children. They are: Katie, 25, a 2008 IU Kelley School graduate who recently married Tom Askey, also a 2008 Kelley School graduate; Joey, 23 (Marquette University '10); Connor, 19 (IU class of '14); and George, 16. Fred, Barbara, Katie, and Tom are life members of the IU Alumni Association.

Should you plan to pick up your credential at will call, please remember to print out your credential application confirmation e-mail and bring it along with you to show the parking attendant to gain access into the purple lot.

SATELLITE TRUCK PARKING

For news organizations sending a satellite truck to cover a game at Memorial Stadium it is best to enter through Gate 5. Satellite trucks will be allowed to park outside the fence on the South Concourse.

MEMORIAL STADIUM PRESS BOX

All working media, with the exception of network television and student radio, will be located on the fifth floor of the press box, located on the West side of Memorial Stadium.

Television stations and photographers, other than the network stations, must shoot all game footage from the sidelines. Space cannot be made available for television stations or photographers to shoot from the press box during televised games. However, spaces are available for talent to watch the game on the fifth floor as is available. Network television is located on the seventh level of the press box.

Level five and level seven can be accessed via the elevator located on the West side of Memorial Stadium. Meals and refreshments are served for the media.

RADIO STATIONS

The fifth level of the Memorial Stadium press box contains two radio booths. One is reserved for the Indiana University Radio Network and the other is reserved for the commercial carrier of the opposing team as designated by the opposition's media relations department. Phone lines have already been installed for the opposition's commercial radio station.

The roof of the press box is the location for both Indiana University's and visiting teams' student radio stations. Student radio stations must make arrangements to have phone lines installed at their own expense prior to the game. The Memorial Stadium press box can accommodate no more than four radio stations providing live broadcasts for the game.

TELEPHONE LINES

Members of the media must make their own arrangements for telephone lines. If you are looking to order a telephone line, please contact Jeff Keag.

WIRELESS ACCESS

Wireless Internet access is available in the Memorial Stadium press box. A username, password and directions explaining how to use our wireless service will be available in the gameday packet located at your press box seat. If you have any questions or need an additional sheet, please contact a member of the media relations staff who will be seated in the back row of the press box directly outside the elevator.

SCOUT CREDENTIALS

Credentials are available for professional scouts upon request. Scouts can send their requests directly to Jeff Keag or by visiting IUHoosiers.com and clicking on the media services link under "Inside Athletics." A link to apply for football credentials will be at the top of the page.

A credential also serves as a parking pass for the game. Scouts need to enter through Gate 11 (purple lot) off the State Road 45/46 Bypass.

ROAD REQUESTS

Indiana's media contingent is responsible for making its own credential requests for road games. Jeff Keag will work with each road opponent's media relations director to find out the best way for each media outlet to go about making their requests (email, web site, etc.). Please contact Keag with questions.

 IU RADIO NETWORK

Indiana University's football program receives some of the most extensive media coverage in the country. Learfield Communications holds the exclusive rights as IU's official radio outlet.

Headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo., Learfield Communications owns the multimedia rights to 49 leading universities in addition to the Black Coaches & Administrators and the Big Ten Conference, a 2008 addition to the Learfield family.

For 39 years, Learfield has excelled in administering the multimedia rights for a host of reputable colleges and universities. It provides exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country. Learfield's strategic affiliation with Team Services, LLC, also affords its partners a distinct advantage in the areas of venue consulting, naming rights and market research.

DON FISCHER

This marks the 39th year that Don Fischer has been the radio play-by-play "voice" of Indiana University football and men's basketball games. The past 24 years, Fischer has worked as an independent contractor and is currently serving the Indiana University Radio Network owned by Learfield Communications out of Jefferson City, Mo.

In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly coaches radio talk shows for both football and basketball and has a daily show, Monday through Friday, from September through March. The daily show is called "IU Sports Today" and is syndicated throughout the state of Indiana. Fischer also offers stations a weekly talk show about IU football and basketball that airs in several markets around the state during the school year.

Fischer does freelance sportscasting, which for the past 17 years has included being the television voice of the Indianapolis Colts.

During his 38 years of work with IU, Fischer has been named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year 25 times by two different organizations. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association has awarded him 21 times, including 2009 and 2010, while the Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association has named him its honoree four times.

In October of 2010, Fischer was one of eight inductees into the Indiana Broadcast Pioneers Richard M. Fairbanks Hall of Fame. The Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association (ISSA) inducted Fischer into the ISSA Hall of Fame in 2004.

He has won several awards for best play-by-play performance, and he has been honored by Indiana University with the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal, that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University. He also has been named an Honorary "I" Man.

In addition, the City of Indianapolis, and the State of Indiana have each honored Fischer with a special "Recognition Day" for his service and abilities as the play by-play broadcaster for IU.

Fischer has broadcast more than 1,500 Indiana University games - a total that includes eight bowl games, four NCAA basketball championship games and two N.I.T. championship games. From 1973 through 1987, he worked for ABC Radio, Canada's CBC and several additional major market radio stations, including WIRE in Indianapolis, as their source for reports during the month of May coverage of the Indianapolis 500. During that period, Fischer also served WIRE and Network Indiana, a statewide news network, as their sports director.

A native of Rochelle, Ill., Fischer has been in the radio business for 43 years. His previous broadcast experience includes stops in Butte, Mont.; Ottawa, Ill.; Springfield, Ill.; and Terre Haute, Ind.

Fischer has four sons and eight grandchildren. Don and his wife, Susy, reside in Greenwood, Ind.

BUCK SUHR

Buck Suhr rejoined the Indiana University Football Radio Network as color commentator for the 2010 season. Suhr, who served in the same capacity from 1997-2001, reunited with the radio voice of the Hoosiers, Don Fischer, and Joe Smith (pre-game, post-game and halftime).

Suhr was a member of the Hoosier football program for 18 years as a coach and administrator. He spent 12 seasons (1984-95) as running backs coach under IU's all-time winningest coach, Bill Mallory.

After his stint as running backs coach, including All-America selections Anthony Thompson and Vaughn Dunbar, Suhr was named administrative assistant to the head coach and athletic director from 1996-2001.

As running backs coach, Suhr helped direct one of the nation's most productive rushing attacks. From 1984-95, the Hoosiers had three different 1,000-yard rushers who topped that mark on six separate occasions. In 1988, the IU offense rushed for a school-record 2,963 yards. During his tenure, Suhr coached Thompson, the 1989 Heisman Trophy runner-up, Dunbar and Alex Smith, the 1994 UPI National Freshman of the Year.

Suhr and his wife, Jane, are the parents of one son, Errek, and the deceased Jenny Suhr. Errek played in 74 games and earned four letters as a guard for the IU men's basketball program from 2004-07.

JOE SMITH

Joe Smith is in his 29th year with the IU Radio Network. He has handled pre-game, halftime, and post-game duties for Indiana football and men's basketball since 1983.

Smith, the sports director of WGCL-AM 1370 in Bloomington, is in his 42nd year of radio broadcasting in Bloomington. He began his broadcasting career in 1969 at WAIK Radio in Galesburg, Ill. From 1973-89, Joe worked on "RFD-4 Agri-Business Show" on WTTV-4 with the late Bob Cook. In 1998, Smith was named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year and in April 2003, he was inducted into the Indiana Sportswriters/Sportscasters Hall of Fame. Joe handled the IU TV Warmup Shows from 1978-82 and hosted several IU Coaches Shows from 1983-96 and again from 2002-04.

In June 2004, Smith received the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University.

Joe has two children, both of whom are Indiana University graduates. Jeff, who currently resides in Indianapolis with his wife, Kristen, is a 2002 graduate with a bachelor's degree in sport communications. Joe's daughter, Jamie, and her husband, Eric Graebe, currently reside in Kill Devil Hills, N.C. She earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2005, and her master's in sports management at the University of Tennessee in 2006.

INDIANA FOOTBALL
COMPLIANCE

Indiana University is extremely proud of the performance of its athletics teams both in competition and in the classroom. While our student-athletes are extremely talented, they could not reach their full potential without the encouragement and support that Hoosier fans bring to every event. We thank you for your commitment to our programs. However, many fans may meet the NCAA's definition of a representative of IU's athletics interests (a "booster"). Much like our university personnel and student-athletes, boosters must also comply with various NCAA guidelines.

Although the NCAA rulebook is complex, it is your obligation to follow NCAA bylaws and to ask questions when you are unsure about their application. Any violation, no matter its size or scope, could affect a student-athlete's eligibility or Indiana University's status with the NCAA. Please help the university avoid these kinds of situations as we strive to continue to support the football program.

While being a booster has many privileges, these benefits do not extend to any duties specifically reserved for athletics personnel. All recruiting matters should be left to our coaching staffs, and boosters must refrain from contacting any potential IU recruits, or their families, coaches or others who surround them concerning their future collegiate enrollment. This includes contacting prospects through the internet or social networking sites. We encourage you instead to contact the Indiana Department of Athletics at (812) 855-1966, to recommend an individual whom you believe could contribute to our fine athletics tradition.

The NCAA and Indiana University take the rules pertaining to boosters and prospective student-athletes very seriously. It does not matter where contact with a prospect occurs or what means of communication is used to reach out to a prospect; it could become a rules violation in any scenario. Prospects and boosters remain bound by these limits until the prospect becomes a regularly enrolled, full-time student at IU, who has either begun practice in his/her sport or started classes for the semester. Any improper contact with a prospect prior to that time or any offer or inducement provided to a prospect or their family is a violation of NCAA regulations and could lead to negative consequences for both Indiana and that student-athlete.

The IU Department of Athletics would like to thank you for supporting our student-athletes. Much of our success is due to you, our friends and fans. If you have any questions about the regulations applying to boosters, feel free to contact anyone in the compliance office. Thanks for complying with the NCAA rules, and GO HOOSIERS!

As fans of our football program and members of the media assigned to cover us, the IU Compliance Office invites you to read along and review a few topics that apply to you as a media member, a fan or a booster, and to our student-athletes as they compete and learn here on the Bloomington campus.

While many friends of the program may constantly remain interested in the growth of our programs and recruiting efforts of our coaching staffs, NCAA rules prohibit any member of the IU athletics staff from commenting publicly about any prospective student-athletes being recruited by our institution. In similar fashion, we are prohibited from publicizing any prospects making visits to our campus, or otherwise making those prospects available for interviews or media comments while they are meeting with our coaches and touring Bloomington. These rules are meant to protect the privacy of these individuals and their families as they go through the recruiting process, and provide the distance necessary for these recruits to make their college choices without undue influence from external entities. Please respect these rules and the prospect's need for privacy during their recruitment – and our need to stay compliant with NCAA publicity of recruiting rules!

Once prospects arrive on campus, they face a new set of challenges as well as the academic and athletic rigors of college life. Specifically, NCAA rules prohibit student-athletes from receiving any free or discounted products or services that are not otherwise available to all other IU students. Sometimes these "extra benefits" are hard to resist, but maintaining eligibility under these rules require that our student-athletes receive only the benefits that may otherwise be provided to a normal college student, or through our department of athletics as a part of their athletic participation. Recent violations at several schools have forced this issue into the spotlight, so please assist us in maintaining our commitment to integrity and compliance by not offering any specials, discounts or free items or services to the IU student-athletes – or recruits.

Finally, as we prepare our student-athletes for life following their collegiate career, many will test the waters in professional sports and make agreements with agents. Under Indiana state law, these agents must register with the Indiana state Attorney General prior to making any contacts with current student-athletes. Additionally, our compliance office requires all agents to register internally, in order to better approve and guide their communications with our outgoing student-athletes. Our student-athletes may not make any verbal or written agreement with an agent if they wish to preserve their collegiate eligibility, so we work to protect those interests while they remain at IU. Please help us be vigilant in our efforts by not involving yourselves in this process, and helping us identify agent activity on our campus when you know of or see it occurring!

As always, we thank you for your commitment to our programs and to helping us make each student-athlete's experiences at IU everything they can possibly be. Your support of our compliance office and these specific rules is a large part of ensuring that IU carries on its tradition of excellence both on and off the playing field. If you have any questions about these, or other NCAA rules, please contact a member of our compliance staff, or visit our website at: www.IUHoosiers.com/compliance.

Help IU Athletics follow NCAA rules and regulations. Please do not distribute or redistribute this piece to prospective student-athletes, their families or coaches.

"...its cobblestoned streets limestone buildings, and old-fashioned porches create a laid-back setting, while the outdoor markets and frequent concerts and lectures keep energy at a steady high. -Travel and Leisure Magazine

Bloomington is the quintessential college town - active, intellectual, young, friendly, relaxed, and safe. It's a small city of 60,000 with cultural resources and opportunities that rival cities many times its size.

You'll find coffee houses, live music, festivals, open-air markets, historic architecture, cafes, restaurants, lakes, parks, museums, and theatres.

Bloomington is nestled in the rolling hills of southern Indiana with a central location in the heart of the Midwest. We're an hour's drive from Indianapolis and the Indianapolis International Airport, two hours from Louisville, three from Cincinnati, and four from Chicago and St. Louis.

We enjoy four distinct seasons in Bloomington, though the weather is generally mild. Extreme cold is rare, snowfall is limited, summers are balmy, and we enjoy long, beautiful autumns and early springs.
